Signature Theatre presents the rock musical Chess by the composers of Mamma Mia! August 10 – September 26

‘One Night in Bangkok’ musical stars Broadway’s Jill Paice, Euan Morton & Jeremy Kushnier, directed by Eric Schaeffer

Arlington, VA, August 10, 2010 – The world of Cold War intrigue, forbidden love, and 1980s rock rules when the legendary musical Chess, by the composers of Mamma Mia!, plays Signature Theatre, August 10 through September 26. The first major American production in almost 20 years—and the Washington region’s very first professional production—stars Broadway’s Jill Paice (Curtains), Euan Morton (Boy George in Taboo), and Jeremy Kushnier (Footloose) in the Russian/American conflict made new again. Director Eric Schaeffer (Broadway’s Million Dollar Quartet) and his creative team capture the gritty, sexy world of Chess’ 1985 radio hit ‘One Night in Bangkok’ in the amazing intimacy of Signature’s 276-seat MAX Theatre. The Tony Award®-winning Signature Theatre has a national reputation for its work with musicals – polishing underappreciated gems, as well as producing world premieres and reinventing classics.

Chess: two international chess masters—one American, one Russian—compete for the world championship only to find that their greatest contest is for the love of the same woman. Amidst political intrigue and international conspiracies, Freddie and Anatoly fight to take the queen in a romantic triangle that mirrors the heightened passions of the Cold War. Originally produced on Broadway in 1988, this Tony-nominated rock musical explores the classic themes of love, loss and betrayal. In addition to ‘One Night in Bangkok,’ Chess features unforgettable songs as such ‘Anthem,’ ‘I Know Him So Well,’ ‘Nobody’s Side,’ and ‘Pity the Child.’ Time Magazine called it “one of the best rock scores ever produced in the theater.”

Chess features music composed by the male half of ABBA Björn Ulvaeus and Benny Andersson (Mamma Mia!), lyrics by Evita and Lion King lyricist Tim Rice, and book by award-winning playwright Richard Nelson. At Signature Theatre, the music direction and new orchestrations are by David Holcenberg, an expert on Ulvaeus and Andersson’s musical theatre work who is currently the Associate Music Supervisor for Mamma Mia! in North and South America. The creative team also includes Karma Camp (choreography), Daniel Conway (sets), Chris Lee (lights),

Kathleen Geldard (costumes), Matt Rowe (sound), and Aaron Fisher (projection design).
